

Floral landscapes at Huilongtan Park, venue for Jiading's annual chrysanthemum exhibition which closed this year on November 25. — Yang Jiani

A resident goes trigger-happy with his mobile phone during the month-long flower show. Winners of entries submitted through the district's official WeChat platform for the annual photo contest will be awarded.

It's a blooming good time with nature at its best

Now the rice crops in Anting Town's paddy fields are in good shape, the pomegranates at Anting Old Street are cracking, the ginkgo trees by Yuanxiang Lake are turning yellow, and the chrysanthemums at Huilongtan Park are still in full bloom ... It's that time of the year when the fields are ripe and the harvest plentiful.

An artistic Jaguar XJ8 donated by Hanswerks Studio is parked during the opening ceremony of the 2022 Shanghai Auto Culture Festival. Through the end of this month, residents in Jiading can take part in a slew of car-themed activities like car boot sale and drive-in cinemas. — Wang Jiajun

A boy learns how to make a straw scarecrow during a fall-themed event at Jiabei Country Park. — Yang Yujie

A late-blooming water lily in deep red is the center of attraction as the remaining flowers in the pond at Guyi Garden have withered during the recent temperature drop. — Jiang Yichao