

Road trip takes automobile buffs along Jiading's auto cultural tourism route

Yang Yujie and Ye Fengting

Jiading is one of the birthplaces of China's automobile industry, a hub for motorsports, a highland for automobile culture and a model for new growth drivers in the automobile industry. To explore Jiading's distinctive automobile culture, a special automobile cultural tourism route offers a fresh and unforgettable journey.

The route, unveiled at the opening ceremony of the 2024 Jiading Tourism Festival on September 30, aims to enhance the travel experiences for both residents and visitors.

Themed "Chasing the Wind in Jiading Smart Auto City," the two-day route connects iconic landmarks such as the Shanghai Auto Museum, Shanghai Auto Expo Park, and Shanghai International Circuit, highlighting the district's rich automobile culture.

SHANGHAI AUTO MUSEUM

Shanghai Auto Museum, China's first professional automobile-themed museum, houses over 100 rare vintage cars and more than 1,000 supporting exhibits, showcasing the evolution of automobiles over hundreds of years.

Located in the picturesque Shanghai Auto Expo Park, the museum includes a History Gallery, Collection Gallery, Technology Zone and an interactive space for children.

Visitors can enjoy a unique ride in a vintage car, reliving the 1960s with the special treatment once reserved for foreign guests or stepping into the shoes of the protagonist from the movie "Green Book."

SAIC VOLKSWAGEN MEB FACTORY

The SAIC Volkswagen tour at its new energy MEB factory in Anting Town gives visitors curious about how cars are assembled a first-hand look at the process.

Visitors can ride a special electric cart through the production workshops, seeing vehicles being assembled from individual parts while experiencing the appeal of cutting-edge manufacturing techniques and modern technology.

The auto-themed experiences continue at the EV-AI Harbor where visitors can take a self-driving car ride and discover autonomous driving technology. They can also visit the Hanswerks Art Garage, China's first offline experience space for automotive culture. For a more relaxed option, they can head to the Yuanyulequ Drive-in Cinema to watch movies under the stars with friends.

A visit to Jiading wouldn't be complete without experiencing the thrill of motorsport speed. The Shanghai International Circuit features China's only Formula 1 track, spanning 5.45 kilometers with tricky corners and long straights. It has hosted the F1 Chinese Grand Prix and other major races since 2004.

The Porsche Experience Center features facilities such as multifunctional driving areas, simulated ice tracks, low-friction loops, and off-road experience zones. Whether you're a beginner or a seasoned driver, there's something for everyone to enjoy behind the wheel.

The SIC Kart Land offers one of Asia's most challenging tracks, with a length of 1.234 kilometers and 18 challenging turns. Visitors can don a helmet, hit the gas and speed around the track.
